NAY BROTHERS—SHOES.

A reason for it.

There is a reason for the great popularity of the "Royal" Shoe.

It's true the price is a popular price, but there are lots of $3.50 shoes on the market. True you don't hear much of them. It's different with the "ROYAL" shoe. Thousands have worn the "ROYAL" and know its merits. It is a shoe with a name and reputation. This shoe has a reputation for selling strictly reliable shoes. We recommend the "ROYAL" as the best shoe in Wheeling for $3.50.

BAPTISTS MEET

In Semi-Annual Pan Handle Sunday School Convention.

TIMELY TOPICS DISCUSSED.

Goodly Representation From the Churches Embraced in the District. Day Sessions Given Over to Sunday School Workers, and Proceedings Closed With Young People's Union Rally—Meet Next at Clayville.

The semi-annual Sunday school convention of the Baptist churches in the Pan Handle was held yesterday at the First Baptist church, at the corner of Twelfth and Byron streets, this city. Morning and afternoon sessions were held, and the day's proceedings closed with the rally of the Baptist Young People's Union in the evening. Considering that there are but ten small congregations embraced in the district, the attendance was large, and the discussions were of the most interesting and profitable character. The next convention will be held at Clayville, Pa., in August.

The gathering in the morning and afternoon included a number of enthusiastic Sunday school workers, and that their hearts were in the work was shown by the spirit with which they entered into the discussions, and not the least interesting feature was the personal experiences of the teachers. Each gave forth practical suggestions for more successful efforts in unfolding Scriptural truths to the children, and it was the general opinion of the visitors that it was the most beneficial convention ever held in the Pan Handle.

The visitors were splendidly entertained by the local pastor, Rev. Martin W. Buck, and members of his congregation. The convention, which opened at 9:45 a. m., was presided over by Mr. H. L. Bond, of this city, who was elected president of the association to fill the unexpired term of Rev. J. H. Jewel. The roll-call developed the following delegates and visitors from other towns:

Sistersville, W. Va.—Miss Ivenore Morris, Joanne Stewart, Rev. George W. Hatch, Mrs. G. W. Hatch, Mrs. Asplin, Mrs. Bryan, Mrs. Walton, Mrs. Creekman, Miss Nellie Henderson, Mrs. W. H. Cutter.
Wolfs Run, W. Va.—James Carmichael, Mrs. Julia Carmichael.
Fork Ridge, W. Va.—W. S. Phillips, Rev. S. K. White.
Clayville, Pa.—Rev. S. L. Purcell, Albert Porter, Miss Lulu M. Porter, Mrs. E. C. McPherson, Miss Anna Herizon, I. K. Porter, Miss Linnie Sanders, Miss Nellie Clarke.
Lazearville, W. Va.—Miss Mary Miller, J. I. Webb, Rev. G. J. Meredith, Mrs. G. J. Meredith.
Pleasant Grove, W. Va.—Rev. C. W. Rockwell, Charles McCracken, G. W. Ryan.
Mountsville, W. Va.—Rev. W. C. D. Bond, Mrs. W. C. D. Bond, Miss Tillie McCormick, Frank Wade, Read McCormick, Elsie Cleghorn, Alonzo P. Carney, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carney.
Fairmont, W. Va.—W. C. Shafer and A. Clifford Kincaid.

At the morning session papers were read by Rev. C. W. Rockwell, of Pleasant Grove, W. Va.; Rev. S. K. White, of Fork Ridge and Wolf's Run, and I. K. Porter, of Clayville. The topic discussed was "The Sunday School Demanded by the Times," and it was urged that there be up-to-date teachers, pastors and Sunday school equipment.

The discussion in the afternoon was on similar lines, centering principally on the relation a teacher should bear to his class. One delegate made several good points by saying that the teacher should be always cheerful, truthful, kind, interested in the pupil and his surroundings, and presenting familiar illustrations, above all being a thorough Christian. Another delegate was in favor of a class for "the old, gray-haired sinners," he saying the average child was more familiar with the Scriptures than the average old person. Primary teaching was given lengthy consideration.

The speakers at this session included W. H. Kasley, of Wheeling; Dr. W. C. D. Bond, of Mountsville; W. C. Shafer, Fairmont; Rev. L. M. McDermott, of Wheeling; J. I. Webb, Lazearville; Miss Lulu Porter, Clayville. The church attracted a large audience in the evening for the meeting conducted by the Baptist Young People's Union. Mr. William Phillips, of Fork Ridge, president of the union, occupied the chair and addresses were made by Rev. G. J. Meredith, of Lazearville, on "The Relation of the Young People's Societies to the Sunday School"; by Rev. G. W. Hatch, of Sistersville, on "A B. Y. P. U. in Every Church," on "Culture for Service," by Rev. S. L. Purcell, of Clayville.

Mr. A. C. Kinkaid, of Fairmont, transportation leader, urged a large representation from this section to the annual convention of the society, which will occur in July at Clendenen. This gathering is usually attended by about 12,000 young people.

The exercises were varied by some choice music by the First church's choir, and the proceedings closed with the benediction.

THE UNIONTOWN RAILROAD.

Greene County Anxious to See the Railroad Go Through.

Commenting on the action of the Ohio county commissioners in regard to the Uniontown, Waynesburg & West Virginia Railway Company, this week's Waynesburg Independent says: The Ohio county commissioners have taken action relative to the bond issue of $500,000 in favor of the Uniontown, Waynesburg & West Virginia railroad. Tuesday morning we received a telegram from Mr. John Freew, of the Wheeling Intelligencer, to the effect that the commissioners had passed the ordinance and set the date of election to vote on the issuing of bonds in the sum of $500,000 July 17, to assist in the construction of this road. The laws of that state are such as to allow a county, township or town to vote on the question of taking stock in an enterprise like a railroad, and Wheeling has very greatly profited by it. There is hardly a railroad that touches that place but what the city and county has taken a block of stock, and in several instances has proven to be a paying investment outside of entering business from other sections in Wheeling. That this road will be of inestimable value to Wheeling there is not the shadow of a doubt. It will enable the business men of that place to compete for the trade from a wealthy agricultural, and what now promises to become a prosperous manufacturing and mining section, saying nothing of the vast saving in the shipment of coal and coke. We regret that the condition of this state prevents Greene county from doing what we believe Ohio county will do July 17—take stock in the proposed railroad from Uniontown to Wheeling. We understand in addition to the $500,000 the county proposes to raise an equal sum from private individuals. The people are convinced of the importance of the road. This puts another plank of faith in this enterprise, and is another source of encouragement to our people, who are so anxious for the road.

Epworth League Convention.

The State Epworth League convention will be held at Buckhannon from June 26 to 28. Buckhannon is an ideal place for a gathering of this kind, and the attendance is sure to be large from the interest being manifested throughout the state. An excellent programme has been prepared. Excursion rates have been secured over all railroads for the occasion.

To the Public.

The committee having the Alex. Garden benefit in charge Decoration Day met last night at the Seventh ward home house and adopted the report of the treasurer, which is given below for the benefit of those interested. The total amount of money received was $705.75. The total amount of expenses was $33.85, leaving a net balance of $671.90. The committee desires to thank all who assisted them in this work. Respectfully submitted, GEO. W. BRADBURY, Secretary. C. W. McCARTY, Chairman.

THE SUPREME COURT

Opens Its June Term in Wheeling To-day—General Holley Arrives.

The June term of the supreme court of appeals of the state of West Virginia will open in Wheeling this morning, with all the judges present. General James A. Holley, the clerk, arrived from Parkersburg last night. The several judges are expected to reach the city to-day, and a session is likely to be held this afternoon. A number of lawyers from several sections of the state are here to argue cases before the tribunal.

NOTICE.

To the Public.

Seeing the article in the Register of June 6, headed "Laundry Girls Strike," we would like to correct the false and deliberate fabrications on their part. We never did have, nor have we now, a strike at the Pearl Laundry. The whole trouble was that (3) three girls formed a ring to tell us how to run a laundry, all the rest joining in. They have been slighting their work for some time past, and Monday evening every one of them were discharged.
